Lanark County Genealogical Society

At Heritage House Museum;
 11 Old Sly's Road,
 Smiths Falls.

The Genealogical Reference Library holds an interesting collection of genealogical resource materials. It offers the perfect start to uncovering your family mysteries. The library is operated on a self help basis with a Librarian on site at various times who can offer assistance. A $2.00 Researcher Pass is required (good for one year from date of issue) to access the genealogical section located in the basement of Heritage House Museum.

What a wonderful place to do your research

What are the LCGS Holdings?

Family histories, census, cemeteries, church records, newspapers, general history, telephone directories, newsletters & other finding aids, along with the Alice Hughes collection.

Smiths Falls Community Theatre

During the year we perform four plays, one being a children's play, that is entirely acted

High quality theatrical and artistic experiences

by local children. We also run summer drama camps for children of various ages.

At present, we have undertaken the restoration and renovation of the local train station and have turned it into a first class venue for live theatre.

For more information, call Pat Smith at 613-283-6374.

The Smiths Falls Community Theatre will again be holding Drama Camps this summer, for children ages 5-14. The sessions run for a 2 week period for each age group. Drama can promote self-esteem, build confidence and give the children great opportunities to make new friends in an arts and drama program.

For more information please call Nancy at 613-283-7696.
