RURAL TRANSIT FEASIBILITY STUDY

SMITHS FALLS
RISE AT THE FALLS

The Study

Lanark County and the Town of Smiths Falls are undertaking the Rural Transit Feasibility Study to:

- Explore the potential of new public transit services through both a technical and engagement-focused process
- Understand the mobility needs of residents
- Respond to transit-related challenges and opportunities

Study outcomes include:

- Recommend a preferred transit solution that is responsive to the needs and priorities of residents across Lanark County and Smiths Falls
- Develop a roadmap to help bring transit to life, including governance strategies and funding sources.
