Smiths Falls daycare re-opening in progress; announcement to come next week

Smiths Falls – As part of Stage 2 re-opening, the province of Ontario announced that daycares, museums, and libraries may now open. The Town of Smiths Falls is working towards implementing changes required by provincial requirements for these services.

The Town hopes to make an announcement next week with more details. Until such time, parents and members of the public are asked to please be patient while the Town works through the list of requirements needed to implement re-opening as required by the province of Ontario.

The Town of Smiths Falls is working as quickly as possible to implement these changes. When re-opening dates are available, another announcement will be forthcoming.
